

Robert W. Lovelace is Vice Chair, President and a Director of the Capital Group Companies, CEO of Capital Research and Management Company, a subsidiary of Capital Group, and serves on the Capital Group Companies Management Committee. He is also a portfolio manager for the American Funds and President of the New Perspective Fund and New World Fund. Rob has 35 years of investment experience, all with Capital Group. Earlier in his career, Rob was an equity investment analyst at Capital covering global mining & metals companies and companies domiciled in Mexico and the Philippines.

Rob is a Trustee of the J. Paul Getty Trust, a Director of the California Community Foundation, a Director of the Pacific Council on International Policy, a Director of the U.S. Olympic & Paralympic Foundation Board, and a founder of Vistamar School, a private independent high school in the South Bay region of Los Angeles.

Rob graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Princeton University with a bachelor's degree in mineral economics. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® designation and is based in Los Angeles.